

22°C Humidity 95% [ HKT 11:30 pm ]

Mobile / Accessible Version Printer View Share RSS

Home

What's New

About Us

News and Publications

Facts and Figures

Strategies and Government IT Initiatives

Legal Framework and Internet Governance

Community Initiatives and IT Services

Business and Industry Facilitation

IT Infrastructure and Standards

Service Desk

Home > Legal Framework and Internet Governance > Internet Governance > Internet Infrastructure Liaison Group (IILG)

The Internet is the core of the information infrastructure that is critical to communications, conduct of e-business and access to e-services. The Internet Infrastructure Liaison Group (IILG) was established by the Office of the Government Chief Information Officer (OGCIO) in March 2005 in order to maintain close liaison with Internet infrastructure stakeholders and strive in collaboration with the stakeholders to the healthy operation of the Internet infrastructures of Hong Kong.

- ▶ Electronic Transactions Ordinance (Chapter 553)
- ▶ Internet Governance
- ▶ Domain Name Administration Regime
- ▶ Internet Infrastructure Liaison Group (IILG)

- Terms of Reference and Member List
- Meeting, Activation and Collaboration
- Notice

◀ Back

▲ Top

2011© Important Notices | Privacy Policy

Last Review Date: 31 December 2014