

INTRODUCTION OF NIS

Duties

Introduction of NIS Duties

The duties of the NIS are as follows:

The National Intelligence Service reports directly to the president. It provides intelligence, maintains security, and conducts criminal investigations to guarantee national security pursuant to Article 15 of the Government Organization Act.

Specifically, it performs the following functions according to Article 3(1) of the National Intelligence Service Act:

copyright(c) 2011. National Intelligence Service all rights reserved