

News on National Cyber Security Strategies in the European Union and Worldwide

2014-07-08

National cyber security strategies: the latest news worldwide.

Europe:

- Denmark is preparing a new cyber security strategy.
- The Czech Republic and Estonia are in progress of updating their national strategy.
- Lithuania is in the final stages of the strategy design.
- UK has published a survey on 2014 information security breaches within their NCSS framework.

Worldwide:

- Africa is getting active in the cyber security strategies field
 - Kenya is preparing to launch their national strategy (source: allafrica.com).
 - Nigeria is drafting the national strategy (source: tribune.com).
 - And Ghana in the same line (source: ghana.gov.gh)
- Thailand plans for developing a national cyber security plan (source: futuregov.asia).
- Abu Dhabi is trying to align and direct national cyber security efforts in the UAE. (source: khaleejtimes.com)

For more information: National Cyber Security Strategies in the World

Stay updated - subscribe to RSS feeds of both ENISA news items & press releases!

News items:

<http://www.enisa.europa.eu/media/news-items/news-wires/RSS>

PRs:

<http://www.enisa.europa.eu/media/press-releases/press-releases/RSS>